

The College of Health and Social Welfare and the CHSW Diversity Committee welcomes you to a viewing and discussion of the Oscar Award winning movie,
Crash

Friday November 20th, 2009, SSB 118 5:00-7:00 pm

Free admission, snacks provided

Rated R for language, sexual content and some violence.

You must be at least 17 to attend.

People are born with good hearts, but they grow up and learn prejudices.
"Crash" is a movie that brings out bigotry and racial stereotypes. The movie is set in Los Angeles, a city with a cultural mix of every nationality.

"You think you know who you are. You have no idea"